LONDON – OCTOBER 2016 – Providers of unforgettable travel adventures for 18-39 year olds, Topdeck has launched a new 7 day Bali Active offering which is available to book now for April 2017. Young travellers will have the chance to explore paradise with surf lessons, yoga classes and mountain bike tours, whilst meeting likeminded individuals who share their passion for keeping active.

Exploring the surf on the idyllic white beaches of Canggu or finding their Zen in Ubud, the trip will showcase Bali's stunning landscape, stopping off in Canggu, Ubud and Seminyak. Adventurers will also have the opportunity to immerse themselves in the unique island culture with relaxing Balinese massages and a Temple water blessing at a local village.

With plenty of "own" time to capture and share Bali's wanderlust inspiring landscape on Instagram or tuck into some delicious local cuisine, adventurers are able to curate their trip to suit them. Whether it's perfecting their Turtle Roll on the waves, or honing their Warrior I with a specialised yoga instructor, Topdeckers can also opt to take their activity to new heights with a high ropes course in Ubud or get their adrenaline pumping with white water rafting.

Sarah Clark, Topdeck's Global General Manager commented: "With active travel more popular than ever, we are dedicated to providing young travellers with new experiences that enable them to explore destinations, whilst also keeping active on the road. This new offering provides our passengers with a variety of options to choose from, whether it's visiting a hidden temple, surfing, yoga, high ropes, mountain biking or white water rafting, we want to ensure that there's something to suit everyone. At Topdeck we curate our trips to inspire young travellers and those who share our passion for new destinations and cultures."

Providing the perfect platform for adventurers to explore the world in a safe and affordable way, Topdeck offers unforgettable trips through the sheer range of destinations and itineraries on offer. Hassle free and designed to suit every budget, Topdeck offers authentic trips around the world and enables travellers to share their experience with likeminded individuals.

Prices for Bali Active start at £657 (excluding flights). The 7-day trip is now available to book via the Topdeck Website for April 2017: <https://www.topdeck.travel/tours/bali-active-surf-yoga-cycle>
